Cancer

By Linda Reiner Vose

One day you're up
One day you're down
Like a phase of the moon
Your moods turn around In expressive eyes a reflection beams
Of visions from the past, of the day's elusive dreams Tomorrow's never sure, on that you fear reflection Preferring to withdraw from any feeling of rejection Yet when the moon is full, or the ocean roars around you
Romance, laughter, nurturing, are the thoughts that will bound you Your emotions are an enigma, to all but you and one other
If you wish to know what Cancer's like, you need only ask their mother
